

The Paper Radionics Machine

Thank you for your interest.

I hope that you enjoy experimenting with The Paper Radionics Machine as much as I have.

This is a real working paper radionics machine that actually works.

Other paper radionics machines have been created before but none as simple as I am about to show you here. It may seem unlikely that this is even possible but if you want to give it a try I'm sure you'll amaze yourself as well as anyone else you decide to experiment on.

If you didn't purchase this on Fiverr then please disregard any mention of Fiverr or gigs.

What is a radionics machine?

The original radionics machine was invented by Thomas Galen Hieronymus in 1949. It was an electrical device that would measure, transmit or dispel "eloptic energy," a type of radiation that he felt had healing powers.

When he connected this device to his patient he had to turn a series of knobs in order to get a "rate" which turned out to be a psychic connection to the target. He used this device successfully on many patients to help heal them of their illnesses.

In 1956, a man named John W. Campbell began to experiment with his own radionics machine and found that it worked even when it was broken or mistakenly unplugged leading to the belief that it was not necessarily the machine that had much of an effect but instead it was the psychic connection to the patient as well as focused intent that lead to the machine's positive results.

In the course of Campbell's investigation he found that even just using a schematic of a radionics machine worked just as well as the actual physical radionics box.

How to Use The Paper Radionics Machine?

I will let you use my Paper Radionics Machine for a month on two people. This is a real working radionics machine that can heal your pains and other conditions such as colds, flu, and mostly any other ailment you try it out on.

When you receive this pdf you should print out the image at the end and set it up somewhere in your home where it won't be disturbed. You can place it anywhere you want on a flat surface or you can put it up on your wall if you like. You can place something on top of it if you expect a breeze may blow it away. As you can see, it doesn't matter where you put it as it will work no matter what.

Shortly after you will find that when you place your hand over the spiral in the center of the page there is an energy present. Take your hand and place it over or on top of the spiral and you will feel some kind of sensation on your hand. You can also try your wrist as it is a very sensitive area as well. It may feel like a breeze or most likely a warmth and possibly a tingling sensation.

This is the life force energy that does the healing work for you. It is quite a strong energy so anyone who places their hand over it should feel it very quickly.

Then put your name or a friend or pet's name on the left and what you want to heal on the right (this is your intention; the parts of the body you intend to heal) in the areas provided. You can use small slips of scrap paper and just sit them on top. You can also tape them or affix them in any way you'd like.

And shortly after you've set everything up, which takes less than a minute, you will notice most pains go away instantly and other pains go away very quickly. If your condition is not pain related you should notice the condition has improved shortly. That's all!

View a quick video of how to set it up here:

<http://fiverr.com/universalsigns/give-you-a-working-paper-radionics-machine-to-heal-yourself>

You know what part of your body hurts and usually the reason why it hurts, although you don't need to know why, so all you need to do is write down the area that you want to send healing energies to.

If you have the machine working on a specific part of your body and you begin to have issues with that part just let it continue running and you should have relief soon.

For example, sometimes something may cause your problem to flare up such as an allergic reaction or you twisted your knee, or you sat in the wrong position too long, or you did too much and strained the area but if you wait a while it should settle down again.

You can add as many parts of the body (in the spot marked 2. on the paper machine) you want and it will work on all of them. It will work on any bodily issues by sending healing energies to the areas you choose, but it will also work on other areas that cause the pain or condition even if you are not sure where those areas are.

It's much simpler than other radionics machines in that there is absolutely no skill needed. Other radionics machines take a while to figure out. You have to sit down and turn off the television or stop whatever it is you're doing so that you aren't distracted, then you have to turn a dial (or several dials) and then place your right index finger on the stick pad and wait for your finger to stick to it... and on and on.

With my radionics machine you just print the machine out place it on the table place a name on the left, place the area to be healed on the right and you're done! Simple.

Using my paper radionics machine you can heal yourself and your loved ones whenever you want and you don't have to wait for a session with me or anyone else. In a way you become your own healer.

How long to leave the machine running?

You can let it run for as long as you like. For example, if you have knee pain you can let it run for a day or 2 days, all day long until the knee pain is gone. You can leave it running for days, weeks, months, or longer, as long as you remain a customer, and it will continue to work on the area to be healed. It is a healing energy so it won't hurt to leave it on for long periods of time.

Will I feel the energy inside my body?

Most likely you won't even notice it. It is powerful in results but very subtly felt in the body.

Because you probably won't feel anything at all you may think that it isn't working. You will only know that it is working by the results you get. So just let it run for a while and check again later to see if the pain is still there or if the condition is improved.

How to Use the Paper Radionics Machine on More Than One Person?

If you want to use the radionics machine on more than one person all you have to do is stack them on top of each other. For example, let's say you have your name and the area you are trying to heal on the machine already and you want to send healing energies to another person. Just place a new slip of paper with their name on top of your name (in area 1) and place a new slip of paper with the area of their body you want to heal on top of yours (in area 2). That's it.

This way you don't need several pieces of paper lying around your house. You can just use one for everybody.

Experimentation

Create your own experiments and see what type of results you get. If you have any suggestions on making my paper radionics machine better I would love to hear them. Use the Fiverr messaging system or the contact form on my website.

Testimonial - An Example of What You Can Use it For

This is how the radionics machine worked for my mom. She had been having some issues with coughing and feeling out of breath sometimes. Her doctor said she had exertion asthma and she was using an inhaler at least one time per day but she felt like she needed it more than that. She didn't want to use it more than once a day because she doesn't like to be on steroids but if it weren't for the fear of using it she would use it more. I put her name on the paper radionics machine and the place to send healing to I put "cough." I really wasn't sure what to put in area 2 (the place to send healing energies to) because I wasn't sure why she was coughing. I guess I could have just as easily put asthma.

I left her name on the machine and she hasn't needed to use the inhaler for 2 months now... well she overexerted herself once and had to use it... but going from using it once a day and needing it more than that to not needing it at all for 2 months now (except that once) I feel is pretty amazing.

I have also used it on her knee, shoulder, back, and other parts and usually by the next day the parts I used it on felt better by the next morning.

As you can see from this story I wasn't sure what to write in area 2. All I knew was that she had a cough I wanted to get rid of and the machine worked on whatever was causing the cough automatically. I don't know the how's or why's of how it works. I just know that it works and I'm very happy with the results.

How my radionics machine works?

My machine is much different than other machines in that you do not need any previous experience to use it. All you do is set it up as explained above and leave it running on the table (or wherever you would like to place it).

The machine was created in a way that you don't have to understand how it works or even believe in it ... but it will still work.

I have created it with an intelligent energy that knows what to do. It is basically a thought-form made of life force energy also known as Qi (pronounced chee) that performs its predetermined (by me) tasks in an intelligent manner... you just need to intend to help someone and follow the steps above and it will do what you want it to do.

This type of energy is also known as psionic energy as well as a psiball or chi ball and like I said, all it is is a thought form created by my thoughts with loving Qi energy. In essence, it is my thoughts programmed just like a computer program to do a large number of specified tasks.

When you use my radionics machine you will find that many pains go away fairly instantly. Others go away in 10 minutes or less while others can take an hour to a few days or more depending on the severity of the condition.

Conditions unrelated to pain, such as cough or allergies, can be relieved within the hour but it just depends on the condition how long it will actually take.

If you are trying to heal a long-standing preexisting condition you should not remove that person's name from the board. If you do it will lengthen the time for that person's symptoms to lessen and the condition to heal.

It is good to use even if you have no pains. Your intention can be to keep your body healthy. In this case, you can write on a piece of paper “my whole body” and place it on the right (area 2).

You may have issues that you don’t even know you have and this helps unknown conditions and ensures your body stays in good condition. If something does happen that you need to heal you can add more intentions on the same sheet of paper.

It is important to understand that the paper radionics machine works purely on intention. When you think of a person you want to heal while you write their name and place that piece of paper in the box on the left the intelligent energy understands exactly who you want to send healing energies to. And while you’re thinking of that person while you write out the parts of them that you want to heal again the intelligent energies know exactly who to send energy to as well as what part of them to heal.

Create your own experiments by asking someone if they have any pains. Have them note where on their body the pain is and have them rate how bad the pain is. Ask them “how bad is your pain on a scale from 0 to 10, 0 meaning you don’t feel any pain at all and 10 meaning the pain is unbearable.” Remember this number so that you can compare it again after you use the paper radionics machine on them. Setup the paper machine with their name on the left and the place where you are sending the energy to on the right. Give it a little while to work (sometimes I ask the person before the hour is up). Then ask them to rate their pain again and see if their rating has gone down. If so, then you know it is working.

Remember, some pains or conditions will take a while longer so if it isn’t healed within the first few hours then just go on to other things and check again later.

If You Need Help

If you aren't getting good results please let me know... maybe I can tweak the machine or customize something specifically for you.

A Note On Pain:

For minor to major pains it works great and usually those go away quickly. For very severe pain it can ease pains but since severe pains are so strong the machine does not seem to totally get rid of it. It seems to make severe pains more manageable though.

Also, if you are having pain and you have had energy healing done before with no relief consider that your pains may be caused by your emotions.

Metaphysical healers often find that their clients' physical pains are a result of trapped emotions from painful memories. When the healer heals the underlying emotions their pains lessen considerably and even disappear in most cases.

If you believe your pains could be caused by emotional pain you can try my other Fiverr gigs for healing emotional pains.

A Note On Vitamin Deficiency

A lot of conditions are caused by a lack of certain vitamins and minerals so if you have a condition with an unknown cause then consider doing some research on the internet. Use a search phrase such as "vitamins for (your symptom)," such as "vitamins for restless leg syndrome" and see what pops up.

My mom gets restless legs at night and she found that by taking a Potassium vitamin when it starts up that the restlessness stops soon after.

You may just need to take a multi-vitamin. Or you may only need higher doses of a certain vitamin. You should talk to a doctor or nutritionist, someone who knows a lot about nutritional supplements, and they can probably recommend a regimen for you to try.

Other Issues:

If you have sinus congestion or any allergy related problems consider that it could be caused by toxins in your environment. If you are congested in one part of your house but when you go to a different area you find that you are not as congested or the congestion has cleared out then toxins, from aerosols and other household chemicals could be the cause.

If you don't use toxins in the area then it may be an allergic reaction to mold or bacteria. In either case, try cleaning the area thoroughly from top to bottom. Dust, vacuum, wash everything in sight but try to use cleansers that are non-toxic and it should help tremendously.

Other Information:

Also, remember you can only use it on two people at a time. If you try to use it on more than two people at once it will not work on the third or any subsequent people.

It is an intelligent energy that has been designed this way on purpose. If you want to work on more than two people at once then you can purchase this gig again, but only after you have marked the other gig as completed.

You are being given permission to use this radionics machine on only two people for a month starting from the time you receive this pdf. Once this time has expired the machine will no longer work. You can purchase this gig again and again monthly if you want to use it monthly.

Purchasing This Gig Multiple Times

The following information applies if you want to try out the service for a few days first and then decide you want to heal more people later...

If you purchase this gig a second time in the same month I will let you use it on five people at a time and when you purchase this gig a third time in the same month I will let you use it on ten people at a time. Each gig must be marked as completed to qualify.

If you decide to pay for extra gigs note that you will only get to work on those 5 people during the overlapping time period. For example, you must pay $5 2 times ($10) to work on 5 people. If you were to pay for the first gig at $5 and waited 2 weeks to pay for the gig again (another $5) you would be able to work on 5 people for only 2 weeks because the first gig expires in 2 weeks. If you want to continue to work on 5 people you will have to purchase the gig again every 2 weeks which makes it $10 per month.

Updates

You will receive any updates I make to the paper radionics machine as long as you remain a customer with me. So if I were to create a new layout of the paper machine or add some new programming to it you will receive it shortly after.
